Tuition & Refund Policy

50% down is due before or at your 1st session. If you complete your 1st session and decide this training program is not for you, no payment is due or any payments made will be returned to you except for the $200 registration fee and any accompanying credit card fees charged to CDL Guys for payments via credit card.

The remainder 50% should be paid by your 5th session. We do not book your road test until payment has been received in full. This includes payments from any employers, work programs, unemployment paid programs, VA payments, or town/city/state or DPW funded training.

If payment is not received in full by your 10th session, training may be suspended until full payment is made.

Registration fee & credit card fees are non-refundable.

Down payments, and additional tuition payments are not refundable after your 1st session. They are good for 1 calendar year from your 1st training session. If you do not complete the program in the first year, we will consider your training as starting over and tuition will be due in full again. The typical timeframe for the average student to complete our program is about 6-8 weeks start to finish.
